was there dismissed after only about 8 Months for bringing a false charge against his Inspector, and on applying to this Office for Re-entertainment in 1875- a Reference was made to the Deputy Superintendent of Revenue Survey who replied that there was "No objection to the man being Re-employed in the Settlement Department." I accordingly took him on as Extra Gumastah giving him a warning and afterwards promoted him to an Acting Classified post in November 1875, as he was qualified for that work. He was not confirmed in this post till last August-re-entertain in this Department a man dismissed under the circumstances reported from another, but it seems hardly worthwhile to dismiss him now after the lapse of 3 years since his re-entertainment-
