II.—Law.

1. General Jurisprudence.—Candidates will be expected to show that they have mastered the general contents of the prescribed Text Books, the principles to be extracted from them, and their bearings on one another.

Text Books.

Blackstone's Commentaries (Kerr's Edition), from § ii. of the Introduction to Book I., cap. xviii.; or the following portions of Stephen's Commentaries:—§ ii.–iv. of the Introduction. Books I. and III., and Book IV., Part 1; Part 2, cap. i.; and Part 3, cap. i.

The Institutes of Justinian.

Austin's Lectures, I., V., and VI.

Maine's Ancient Law.

Lord Mackenzie's Studies in Roman Law. (A knowledge of the comparative views of the Laws of France and Scotland will not be required.)*

Bentham's Theory of Legislation by Dumont.—Principles of Legislation, cap. vii. to end; Principles of Civil Code (omitting cap. v. of Part III).

2. Notes of Cases and Law of Evidence.—Each Candidate will be required to furnish four Reports,†

* The whole of this work may be read with advantage by Candidates for the Prize in Law; as also Bentham's Principles of the Penal Code.

† These reports must be sent in so as to be received at this Office on or before April 10th. They should be legibly written on half sheets of foolscap paper, and on one side only.

drawn up as described in the "General Instructions," with particular attention to clearness of language, and method in the analytical summaries. The subjects of these reports are to be as follows:—*

1. The investigation before a London Police Magistrate of a grave criminal charge, ending in committal for trial by jury. The attendance for this report may commence on the first remand;† but in such case the purport of the evidence taken before the first remand must be clearly and fully given in the report.

2. The whole business, of whatever kind, transacted in a London Police Court in any one day. (No separate summary required.)

3–4. Two important Civil Causes tried by a Special Jury in London or Westminster, or at Kingston.

Besides continuing the general study of the leading rules of Evidence and Procedure, as laid down in Pitt Taylor's Treatise, Candidates will be required

* It is expected that Candidates will, by their own inquiries, ascertain at what places and times they should attend for the purpose of taking their Notes. In case of difficulty, however, application may be made to this office for such information as the Commissioners may be able to afford.

† The days of such remands may be ascertained by inquiry from the clerks of the several Police Courts.

to master more particularly the provisions of the Indian Evidence Act (1872).*

3. Indian Law:—

All Candidates must be thoroughly acquainted with the following works:—

The Indian Penal Code.
The Code of Civil Procedure.
The Code of Criminal Procedure (1872).
Hindu and Mahommedan Law.
The Indian Limitation Act, 1871.
The Indian Law of Contracts (1872).
Acts of the Government of India, No. 23 of 1861, and No. 9 of 1863.

III.—History and Geography of India.†

Candidates will be expected to show a general knowledge of Elphinstone's History of India, and to

* An Edition of this Act, by J. Fitzjames Stephen, Q.C., has been published by Macmillan and Co.
Candidates for the Prize will be expected to have read Fitzjames Stephen's Digest of the Law of Evidence, Macmillan, 1876.

† Candidates for the Prize will be expected to have read not only the general histories of India, but also such special works as the histories of Orme and Grant Duff, and Kaye's Afghan War, and Life of Metcalfe.

be well acquainted with the Geography of India. Under the head of History they will be examined more particularly in the following works:—

Mill's British India, capp. 8—13 of Book VI.
Wilson's continuation of Mill, capp. 1 of Book I., and 1—12 of Book II.
Marshman's History of India, chap. 8—38.

IV.—Political Economy.*

Candidates will be examined more particularly in Mill's Political Economy; but they must be prepared to answer questions referring, for the sake of illustration or comparison, to Adam Smith, and McCulloch's Notes.

N.B.—Candidates are reminded that at this Examination it will be decided whether they are qualified for the Civil Service of India, and that no Candidate can be regarded as qualified who is not found to have a competent knowledge of the several subjects above specified.

* Candidates for the Prize will be expected to have included in their reading the first twenty-one chapters at least of Ricardo's Political Economy, Northcote's History of Twenty Years of Financial Policy, and Goschen's Theory of Foreign Exchanges.

As the duties of civilians in India are such as often require the performance of journeys on horseback, Candidates will be expected to produce, before the time fixed for the Final Examination, satisfactory evidence of their ability in this respect.

CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

Open Competition of 1876.

TABLE OF MARKS.

NOTE.—The following extract from the Tenth Report of the Civil Service Commissioners refers to a change in the mode of assigning marks:—"It has already "been mentioned as one of the ruling principles of these examinations that no can- "didate should be allowed any credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a "mere smatterer. Hitherto we have thought it enough, in conformity with this "principle, to strike out all marks which indicated less than a competent knowledge "of the subject selected; leaving those whose knowledge exceeded, by ever so "little, the minimum of competence, to count all the marks assigned to them. We "are of opinion, however, that superficial study may be more effectually discouraged "by allowing no credit for slight knowledge even to those candidates who succeed in "passing beyond it. We propose, therefore, that from the marks of all candidates "alike a number answering to this slight knowledge shall be deducted; but that it "shall be possible, nevertheless, for any candidate who may show remarkable pro- "ficiency in any subject to obtain the full number of marks allotted to that subject."

On this occasion a deduction of 125 has been made from the marks assigned in each subject.
