various Collectors' offices and in two of the ports, costing in the aggregate Rs. 5,940 per annum, and to request sanction for the charge* as approved by this Government in their order, dated 25th February 1876, No. 284.

2. I am to state that this Government agree with the Board that the increase proposed is absolutely necessary, but it is possible that it may be found desirable hereafter, when more experience is gained of the working of the system, to vary to some extent the arrangements now proposed on the score of economy and efficiency. I am to add that as it was represented that the services of the new establishment were in immediate request, their entertainment has been permitted in anticipation of the sanction of the Government of India, except as regards the proposed increase to the Sea Custom Establishment at Madras, in respect to which further information has been called for.
