REMARKS.

LAND REVENUE, ARREARS.

- a—Increase due to larger outland balance at the beginning of the fasli and to the adoption of stringent measures for its speedy collection.
- b—Increase due to larger collection of arrears outstanding at the beginning of the fasli on account of the favorable state of the season.
- c—Increase due to the efforts of the local officials and to the favorable state of the season.
- d—Decrease due to less amount of arrears at the beginning of the fasli.
- e—Increase due to the increase in the demand for current fasli.
- f—Increase due to the punctual realization of the current kists.
- g—Increase due to the improved state of the season.
- h—Increase due to the enhanced rate of the present toddy rent.
- i—Increase due to larger arrears at the beginning of the fasli.
- k—Increase due to the collection of two instalments this year, while in last year only one instalment was collected.
- l—Increase due to the punctual collection of the current kists and to the realization of a portion of the exceptionally large amount of arrears at the beginning of the fasli.
- m—Decrease due chiefly to the change of system introduced this year and to the reduced amount of the demand.
- n—Decrease due to the transfer of the arack rent of the outer limits to Chingleput and to smaller sales consequent on high prices.
