Calcutta, the 11th April 1878.

SIR,

Numerous errors have occurred from time to time in the compilation of Trade Statistics owing to the Compilers in the Custom Houses not being aware in what Provinces certain ports were situated, or whether they were British or Foreign Indian Ports.

2. It was therefore considered advisable to prepare a list of all ports in India for the future guidance of Customs officials. After reference to the local maritime Governments a list has been prepared showing the ports (British Indian and Foreign Indian) in each Province separately. One hundred copies of the list accompany this letter, and I am to request that they may be distributed by sea Port
