Memo explaining the ^{cause of the} variations in the collections of Salt Revenue up to the end of July 1878, Fasli 1288. (Vide Board's Proceedings dated 30th October 1878 No 2905. 3032/1)

Districts	Remarks.
01. Gangam	Increase due to larger sales for the Regulation Provinces in the Bengal Presidency.
02. Godavery	Increase due to large purchases by boat Merchants in view to avoid frequent journeys in the monsoon.
03. Kistna	Increase due to the reopening of the Nizampatnam and Beyswada Canal which had facilitated the transport of salt to Jaggayapet.
04. Tanjore	Increase due partly to the enhancement of price and partly to the closing of some divisional accounts later than before.
05. Tirunelveli	Increase due to the exportation of Salt to Calcutta on private account and to the enhancement of the monopoly price.
06. Malabar	Increase due to larger imports on private account.
07. Chingleput.	{ Decrease due to the fact that salt was not available for sale wholesale at the Madras Salt Cotans and that the merchants had to go to Home's Gardens.
