MISCELLANEOUS SERIES.

G.O., No. 3050

DATED 20th July 98

[Despatch Abstract.]

Communicating to the Board of Revenue (C. C. (Indl)) approving the suggestion of the Asst. Genl that as regards the question of issuing instructions for the more careful scrutiny of cheques in treasuries, will be sufficient if the attention of Treasury officers be drawn to article 314 of the C. C. and to their papers in the matter of cashing cheques and requesting him to issue a circular drawing the attention of all treasury officers to the matter in question.

Read the following paper:—

From the Accountant-General, Madras, No. 2117, dated 29th June 1898:—

With reference to Government Order No. 515, Financial, dated the 6th of June 1898, I have the honour to report that article 514 of the Civil Account Code contains full and clear instructions as regards the scrutiny of cheques in transactions especially in note 4.

The endorsement of the cheques in the present case was not therefore due to any defect in the rules, but to the fact that they were not properly observed. In these circumstances, I am of opinion that it will be sufficient, if the attention of all Treasury Officers is specially drawn to the provisions of article 514 of the Civil Account Code, and to their responsibility in the matter of endorsing cheques.

ORDER :—No. 592, dated 11th July 1898.

The suggestion of the Accountant-General is approved and he will be requested to issue a Circular drawing the attention of all Treasury Officers to the matter.
