PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

5th February 1878, No. 207.

Despatches from Secretary of State.

No. 25. Proceedings of Government, dated 5th February 1878, No. 207.

His Grace the Governor in Council desires it may be a standing rule in all departments of the Secretariat, in regard to the despatches of the Secretary of State and Government of India, to communicate only the purport or so much only of the text as may be necessary with reference to the disposal of the matter in hand. Great inconvenience to the public service must often result where a contrary procedure is adopted.
