* returned

Sir, I have the honor to reply to endorsement on Board's Petition N^o 1640 of 1875.

2. The Petitioner, late Tahsildar of the Chingleput Taluq is reported to be fit for further service, and I find that for some months previous to the time at which he was recommended for pension much of his time was taken up in pushing on the the construction of a Local Fund Road, part of which was within the limits of his Salook. This may possibly account for his being backward in the collection and in other branches of his more immediate work.

3. He would appear to have done good service in former years, and I recommend his being allowed to complete the period of service required for half pension.

The Board approve Bujanga Row's retention for the period requisite to

to enable him to complete his service for half pension.

2. Petitioner will be referred to the Collector.
