Service Books.

Read the following paper:—

No. 34. From R. J. MELVILLE, Esq., Protector of Emigrants, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 30th January 1878, No. 25.

With reference to the Resolution of the Government of India recorded in G.O., No. 113, dated 21st instant, I have the honor to request that I may be informed whether, in the case of officials whose Service Books are now kept in English, new Service Books with headings printed in English and the Vernacular should be opened.

2. Service Books in this office are all kept in English.

No. 35. ORDER THEREON, 5th February 1878, No. 212.

His Grace the Governor in Council sees no reason for superseding the Service Books already kept in English, by books with headings printed "in both English and Vernacular."

2. But all books which may hereafter be kept, should have the headings printed as determined by the Government of India in their Financial Resolution, dated 5th January 1878, No. 39.
