Sir,

1. I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the Order of Government dated 21st January 1878 together with its enclosure, requesting the Acting Advocate Generals opinion relative to the additional duty demanded by the Salt Revenue Officer at Calicut and the consequent detention of certain quantity of Salt belonging to one Kurry Bhaujee Merchant of Bombay.

2. I submitted the matter for the consideration of the Acting Advocate General and he has returned the papers with his remarks that until the explanation of the Officer who demanded the duty in this case is received and a copy sent to him (the Acting Advocate General) he will not be in a position to advise on the Case. I therefore return the papers for the present, pending receipt of the copy Report of the Collector of Malabar.
