Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 28th March 1876.

No. 264. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 29th February 1876, No. 590 :—

Read the following letter from F. WILKINSON, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector, to C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, dated Royacottah, 8th February 1876, No. 59.

WITH reference to G.O., No. 19, dated 7th January 1876, Miscellaneous, I have the honor to request that you will move Government to reconsider their order of the 17th June 1875, No. 923, Miscellaneous.

2. In the former order, Government have laid down (paragraph 1) the rule that an officer on privilege leave shall not draw fixed tentage unless his locum tenens distinctly accepts the use of his tents.

3. In the second paragraph of their order, Government, on the ground that Messrs. Kelsall and Hardinge admit that the tents of the Collectors, for whom they were acting, were at their disposal, direct that the Collectors should draw the higher rate of fixed tentage. It is true that in the docket there is a misprint, and Mr. Hardinge is entered as entitled to fixed tentage; but from the wording of the Government Order it is evident that the permanent incumbents are allowed to draw their tentage.

4. Now, my case was precisely similar to that of Messrs. Foster and VansAgnew. I placed my tents at Mr. LeFanu's disposal (vide paragraph 3 of that officer's letter embodied in Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, dated 17th June 1875), not, as he states, after he joined at Oosoor, but as soon as I saw his acting appointment in the Gazette, and I gave over charge to him, and my tents were at his disposal during the whole time he acted for me.

5. As, therefore, Government have now ruled that Messrs. Foster and VansAgnew shall draw the higher rate of fixed tentage while they were on privilege leave, I trust they will see fit to cancel their order of the 17th June last, and to permit me to draw fixed tentage for the time I was on privilege leave in April, May, and June last year.

SUBMITTED, through the Board of Revenue, for the favorable consideration of Government.
