estimated that this extra amount will be expended by the end of the year, under the exceptional circumstances already brought to notice.

2. I am to state that the excess expenditure has been incurred with reference to the observation made by the Government of India in their letter, 26th March 1872, No. 2,265, that "the necessary expenditure for the manufacture of Salt will never be restricted to the limit of the provision made for the purpose."

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
