To,
The Secretary,
Board of Revenue
Madras

SIR,

We beg again to remind you of the printing paper which is still lying in our hands, despite the assurance we obtained from Government that it would be taken up for their use. We beg you will refer to our letter to you dated the 17th January 1878, calling your attention to this matter. We have had entailed upon us a large loss in interest by the paper lying idle in our hands, and in praying that there may be no further delay in relieving us of the paper and paying us the amount due upon it, we have also to beg that we may recoup in the loss we have suffered in accumulated interest.
