SIR,

I have the honor to report that a Deal wood box containing the records of the Assistant Collector was lost on the Railway on the second November 1877 and Mr. Horsfall proposes the insertion in the District Gazette as well as in the P.W. sheet of a notification promising a reward of Rs. 20 to any one who may bring the box with the records or give true information concerning it. I consider this course necessary and request sanction for the payment of the reward out of Government funds should the terms of
