G.O. No.	709	Press.
B.P. No.		Mis.
Dated		18-3-1878. 197.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

as it was necessary for me to make a tour of inspection through the Cumbham Division I despatched my tent from Kurnool across the Vallamallay range of hills to Komorole at the extreme south of the Cumbham Taluq, took two horses with me by Rail to Cuddapah where I left them, & on my return from Madras quitted the train at Cuddapah, rode my horses 70 miles to Komorole and there joined my Camp.

3. Had I not done so, there would have been a charhops of some six or eight days with unnecessary additional expense to govt, I have therefore the honor to request that you will be pleased to authorize the Actg Secy to withdraw the objection.

Kurnool collector's office I have &c 6th February 1878 J/cy R. Davidson
