Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence marginally noted, I have the honor to point out that it still remains to be decided whether the Sub collector (or Head Assistant Collector as the case may be) should continue to draw extra tentage all the year round for keeping up an office at Shermadewi.

2. The money unnecessarily paid to the Sub-Collector since I first mooted the question in 1868 has been enough to build an office many times over; and if no office is required (as reported in this office letter No 1169 dated 5th March 1877) so much the better for Government.

Collector

The Board and opinion that on the

the transfer of charge to the Head Asst. Collector the payment of extra trutage during halts at Sriramadwimay be discontinued, the up keep of the Cutchery buildings being in future undertaken by Government.
