Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 30th May 1876.

No. 342. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th May 1876, Miscellaneous No. 4,113:—

Read the following letter from R. VENKATAKRISTNA ROW, B.A., Dewan, to G. VANSAGNEW, Esq., Collector of Nellore, dated Nellore, 7th March 1876, No. 39.

I BEG to inform you that I proceeded to Venkatagiri on the 27th ultimo, having given over charge of my office of Huzur Sheristadar on the 26th as previously arranged.

2. On the 3rd instant the Raja issued to me a Sanad with the usual formalities and a pair of shawls.

3. In his letter to me, dated 30th December 1875, which you sent up to Government through the Board of Revenue, the Raja agreed to bear the charge of contribution and to allow me Rs. 500 per month, as the net amount of pay counting for pension. My salary thus really amounts to Rs. 568-2-11, and I request sanction to pay monthly Rs. 68-2-11 in the Government treasury of the Venkatagiri Division as my contribution, at 12 per cent., under paragraph 2, Section 35, of the Civil Pension Code, retaining the remaining sum of Rs. 500 as my actual pay counting for pension.

4. The Accountant-General drew your attention to paragraph 7 of Section 35 of the Civil Pension Code, when you made a reference to him last month about my transfer. It provides that "the pay or salary of an officer lent to a Native State must in every case be fixed with the consent of the Government of India". I beg, therefore, that the requisite sanction may be obtained for the arrangement specified in paragraph 3.

5. In the letter quoted in paragraph 3, my allowance on account of carriage, &c., was entered at Rs. 80 per month. It appears that this was a mistake, and in the Sanad now given to me the error has been rectified, and the correct amount entered at Rs. 95-8-0.

6. I have drawn from the Raja my pay, &c., for the three days of last month. The contribution for this period amounts to Rs. 7-0-10, which I have, in anticipation of sanction, sent to the Treasury Deputy Collector.
