(Signed) C. M. MOBERLY, Major,
Offg. Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

From the Government of India, Public Works Department, to the Director of State Railway Stores, dated 26th October 1877, No. 805 A—G.

Large quantities of surplus stores havi within the course of the last few years, been accumulated by the Railway Companies and t Government Departments, it is of the highest importance that efforts should be made to util uch stores as much as possible and to get rid of all useless articles.

2. The publication, periodically, in th zette of India and local gazettes of a list of all surplus stores, plant and machinery available or transfer, appears to the Government of India a proper preliminary step towards the t of the end in view, and I am, therefore, to request that you will in future prepare su in the accompanying form, for publication regularly every year. I am also to say that uld make it a special object to utilize as far as possible on State Railways the surplus f other Railways and Departments and in respect to Government surplus stores of al arrange for the sale by auction of such as cannot be utilized and, when advisable, even aem Home or to foreign markets.

3. With a view to the early publication these orders, of the first list of surplus stores, you should arrange to obtain the r particulars from Local Governments and Administrations, Government Departments, ailway Companies with the least possible delay.

No. 85. ORDER THEREON, 16th November 1877, No. 653 R.

COMMUNICATED to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, who will arrange for supplying the Director of State Railways Stores with such information as can be afforded.
