But it seems that he has been relieved of Famine

ago & that Parotus
was mistaken.

in claiming him.

Please ask the

My dear mother.

I am very glad to hear that you are under the impression that I am still on furlough duty as I was to have today that has relieved some time ago and allowed to go back to my own regular work. I am who succeeded me here is just closing relief and is about starting for Kadu in the subdivision.

Dear Sir,

Core of [unclear]
has been told that he cant have his privilege leave till spare
by the Finance Dept.

Vide blue pencil
notes enclosed.

In his present note
he says that he has relieved of financial work some time ago.

Was he? & have you
any thing more to do with him? Yours sincerely

Chas. [unclear]

My dear Mr. Cox is no longer on Famine list.
I told Carmichael of this to be that he has
because his name
appears on the list of officers submitted by the Collector with monthly
list of names to be relieved of all Famine
duty - He can therefore
now leave prison.

Dear Mr. Michael,

I have brought
forward this application of 500s for 3
months privilege
leave on two occasions.

On 27th March its consideration was to be deferred for a fortnight to see how things go - i.e. if distress increases.

I took it & this force
again on the 10th inst
at Government House

but my interview was rather hurried &
perhaps I did not
explain with sufficient clearness.
I was told to tell you
that leave could not be granted at present
& I think Mr. Grace's
decision is a reference to the prospect of
war & the probability that all officers
& I have to remain
at their posts.

115
said Cox wanted to go home but perhaps
Mr. Spruce did not catch that it was only for 3 months.

Cox writes that he really needs the rest
but from being out
in the District cannot put himself
under the observation
of a Doctor.

Will you submit
again at next forum.
Ed? Yours sincerely
Chas. L. S.

Sir,
With reference to the

to suggest that Mr. Lakshtikanta Row be appointed to act as Deputy Director during Mr. Fox's absence on leave.

Lakshtikanta Row
is a Telugu Brahmin and
is

is thoroughly well
acquainted with the details of settlement
work. He would thus be able to push on
the settlement of Cuddapah rapidly and no time
would be lost by Mr. Fox absence.
