last, I have the honor to report that the yeomiah pension therein referred to being for religious service is hereditary. It was granted to Ghulam Hussain under G.O., No. 2,166, of the 13th September 1867. The pension was originally granted by the Nabob of the Carnatic for the performance of a ceremony called Asar Sheriff.

2. The present petitioner, Ghulam Russool, has been ascertained to be the brother of Ghulam Hussain, who died on the 4th January 1876. Two respectable Mahomedans speak to Ghulam Hussain having died childless, and to the ceremony for which the pension is granted being duly performed by Ghulam Russool at his own expense after his brother's death. Moreover, the deceased pensioner's widow also requests that the pension may be continued in Ghulam Russool's name.

3. Under these circumstances, I recommend that the petitioner's request may be granted. The yeomiah consists of a quarterly payment of Rupees 11-0-11½. The usual statement showing the particulars of the pension is forwarded.
