No. 316. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 6th June 1876, No. 1,483 :—

Read the following letter from H. SEWELL, Esq., Acting Collector of Trichinopoly, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 29th April 1876, No. 103 :—

I HAVE the honor to forward for the favorable consideration of the Board a petition from one Syed Abdul Lateef Mohideen Khadri, praying that the pension which was enjoyed by his father may be continued to him.

2. In the year 1756, the village of Alanthalapur in the Perambalur Taluq, yielding an annual income of Rs. 1,628, was granted by Nabob Wallajah as an Inam* for the support of Syed Mahomed Peer Zadu, the great-great-grandfather of the petitioner.

* Vide Nabob Wallajah's Purvana, dated 24th Rubelaval, Hiziri 1171, forwarded to the Board as enclosure No. 1 to Collector's letter, dated 24th May 1827.

3. The entry in the Inam Register of 1814 shows that it was "not hereditary Inam." It further shows that the Inam was resumed in 1813 for want of valid title, and was restored in December of the same year, pending a reference to the Board which does not appear to have been made.

4. The Inam, however, continued in the enjoyment of the family of Syed Mahomed, the original grantee, until 1827, when Bee Bee Maha Sahiba and Hazarat Sahiba Bee Bee, his grand-daughters, petitioned that it might be placed under Government management. But the Collector proposed to resume the Inam, recommending the grant of a life-pension of Rupees 350 per annum to each of the two females in consideration of their rank and respectability.

5. The Board, however, took a more favorable view of the case and recommended a pension of Rupees 500 each, on the understanding that it was not to be continued to their heirs, remarking at the same time that on the demise of the incumbents, the state of the family would be taken into consideration and such provision made as may appear to be necessary. The Government sanctioned the Board's proposal in letter No. 406, dated 12th June 1829.

6. Hazarat Sahiba Bee Bee and Bee Bee Maha Sahiba died in 1840 and 1845, respectively, the former leaving a son named Syed Hussain Khadri, and the latter two sons named Peersha Mohideen Khadri and Syed Sha Valcoolla Khadri; and on their destitute condition being brought to the notice of Government, a life-pension† of Rs. 120 each per annum was granted to them.

† Vide Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 31st October 1840, communicated in Board's E. Proceedings, dated 26th November 1840, and Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 1st November 1845, No. 1,269, communicated in Board's E. Proceedings, dated 6th November 1845.

7. Of the aforesaid three brothers, Peersha died in 1867 leaving petitioner, his only son, who is in no better circumstances than his father had been prior to the grant of pension, and the other two incumbents are alive.

8. I have, therefore, the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the grant of a decreased life-pension of Rupees 7 per mensem to petitioner, in consideration of the respectability of his family and the reduced circumstances in which he is placed at present.

9. The usual tabular statement and a genealogical table of petitioner's family are enclosed.

ENCLOSURE No. 3.—Petition.

THE village of Alanthalapur, granted A. D. 1756 by the Nabob as Inam to Syed Mahomed Peer Sahib, continued in possession of his family until 1827, when his two grand-daughters, who then held the Inam, owing to disputes with their tenants, requested the Collector to take the village under Government management. Their request was complied with, but the Collector saw reason to doubt the validity of their title, and on inquiry found that the Inam had been granted to the original grantee for life only. It was therefore resumed, and a pension of Rs. 500 a year was granted to each of the grand-daughters for life, with the intimation that on lapse the circumstances of the family would be considered.

2. One died in 1840 when a life-pension of Rupees 10 a-month was granted to her son Syed Hussain Khadri.

3. On the death of the other in 1845, a life-pension of Rupees 10 a-month was granted to each of her two sons Syed Sha Valcoolla Khadri and Peersha Mohideen Khadri. The latter died in 1867, leaving a son Abdul Lateef Mohideen Khadri, then a Minor, who has since been supported by his uncle, but now applies for the continuance of his father's pension with arrears.

4. In consideration of the respectability of the family and its reduced circumstances, the Collector recommends the grant of a life-pension of Rupees 7 a-month.

5. Considering that the pension which lapsed nine years ago was in express terms granted for life, that the claimant, a young man (17 years), might reasonably be expected to do something for himself, and that the grant of a pension to him will involve the necessity of showing similar indulgence hereafter to the children of the two surviving incumbents, the Board doubt whether Government will be disposed to accede to the Collector's proposal, but think it right to submit the application for orders. Arrears are claimed, but the Collector says nothing on this point.

Miscellaneous.

THE pension was a life-pension ab initio—of grace. Support has been conceded for several generations, and continuance to petitioner would lead to other similar claims being preferred hereafter. The Government therefore decline to accede to the Collector's proposal.
