Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th July 1876.

No. 50. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th June 1876, No. 1,590 :—

Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 10th December 1875, Mis. No. 11,044.
Read also the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 6th April 1876, No. 190:

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, Miscellaneous No. 11,044, dated 10th December last, I have the honor to state that the family of the deceased Yeomiahdar has no other means of support besides the Yeomiah. This fact as well as the age of each surviving member of the family has now been specified in Column 6 of the Statement which is herewith forwarded.

2. The nephews of the deceased are the sons of the brothers.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The continuance of this personal grant of Rupees 25-13-0 a-year to Narsimhabhatt was sanctioned in G.O., dated 18th July 1820, No. 1,310, as recommended by the Board, in consideration of his having no other means of subsistence. He has died leaving no male issue, but four daughters and two nephews, who, it is stated, have no means of subsistence besides the pension. The daughters do not claim the pension for themselves, but request that it may be continued to Soobba Sastroolu, nephew of the deceased, and this request is supported by the Collector in consideration of the pension having been held by the family for a long time.

3. The Board are of opinion that sufficient reason has not been shown for the continuance of the grant. The immediate heirs of the deceased do not claim the allowance which is so small as to be of little assistance to the family, and the nephews of the deceased should be able to earn their own livelihood.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) E. GIBSON,
Acting Sub-Secretary.

No. 51. ORDER THEREON, 6th July 1876, No. 905.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government concur with the Board in considering that the recommendation must be refused. The grant was a personal one.
