*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
15th July 1876.*

No. 140. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th July 1876, Miscellaneous No. 5,726:—

Read the following letter from H. W. BLISS, Esq., Acting Collector of Madura, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Gudalur, 28th June 1876, No. 247.

REFERRING to the Notification in the Forst St. George Gazette, of the 20th instant, of Mr. Turner's appointment to act as Head Assistant Collector and Magistrate during Mr. Nicholson's employment on other duty without prejudice to his own appointment as Acting Special Assistant Collector, I have the honor, by his request, to inquire the rate of pay to which he will be entitled during such period. He considers that he is entitled to pay as Assistant and Acting Head Assistant Collector in addition to the pay which he draws from the estate; and I agree with him that in deciding on the remuneration to be paid by Government to an officer for services performed for them, the receipts of that officer from private sources cannot be taken into account. I think, also, that during the period during which Mr. Turner may be acting as Head Assistant Collector, the Ramnad Estate should not be called on to pay pensionary contribution on his account. I request orders on this point also.

2. I take this opportunity to point out the great inconvenience which will be caused by Mr. Turner's appointment as above. Not only is it impossible for one man,—no matter how hard-working,—to do the work of these two heavy offices, each of which gives full employment to an able officer, but as Mr. Turner is himself the principal litigant in the Court of the Head Assistant Collector, and cannot well try suits in which he is a party, several hundreds of suits, probably, must stand over for several months, very likely to the injury of the parties and with the certain effect that Mr. Nicholson will be simply overwhelmed with arrears on his return to Ramnad, and will be put in a very unfair position. I cannot transfer any of these suits in which Mr. Turner is a party to any other officer, or take them myself, because the Vakils engaged in them attend the Head Assistant Collector's Court only and always, and if they have to leave it to conduct these suits must neglect others, as they cannot be in two places at the same time.

3. On former occasions when the Head Assistant Collector has been temporarily absent from his division, the Assistant Collector has been accustomed to take his work with such assistance as the Collector could afford him. There is no Assistant Collector in the district now, but there is a Temporary Deputy Collector who could take the Head Assistant Collector's work for a time. If, therefore, no Assistant Collector qualified to act as Head Assistant can be spared from any other district, I venture to recommend this arrangement as in every way better both for the public interest and for the individual officers than that now ordered.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government with the Board's recommendation that, if possible, another officer may be appointed to act as Head Assistant Collector. The Board agree with Mr. Bliss in thinking that Mr. Turner's position as Manager of the Zemindari under the Court of Wards renders his appointment as Head Assistant Magistrate and Collector very undesirable.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
15th July 1876.*

2. With regard to the claim for deputation allowance on behalf of Mr. Turner, the Collector is referred to Board's Miscellaneous Proceedings, dated 23rd June 1875, No. 5,636, and to the order of Government thereon, dated 14th July 1875, No. 1,461. The claim to an additional allowance cannot be admitted.

ORDER THEREON, 15th July 1876, No. 947.

Miscellaneous.

THE Collector should distribute the duties of his Head Assistant between Mr. Turner and the Temporary Deputy Collector. There is no magisterial work, the performance of which would be incompatible with Mr. Turner's position as Manager of the Ramnad Estate; but, of course, he cannot dispose of cases under the Rent Recovery Act, in which the Minor Zemindar's interests are concerned.

2. The question of additional salary for Mr. Turner is disposed of by the Board's remarks.
