Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th July 1876.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. In their Order, dated 27th February 1858, No. 262, paragraph 11, Government sanctioned the continuance of certain small allowances to Potails, Curnams, Barbers, Carpenters, and other minor village servants as remuneration for service until the general revision of village officers' salaries. On the revision of the village establishments in 1871, most of these grants were resumed, but a few payable to minor village servants, who receive no salary from Government under the revised scheme, are still paid. In four such cases, arrears were claimed and paid, but the Accountant-General has objected to payment with reference to Standing Order No. 179, the arrears being for more than two years.

3. In reference to the last paragraph of the letter recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 20th March 1876, No. 790, the Board are of opinion that as the grants in question are not affected by the revision of the village establishments, and as the service is still performed, they should be continued. The Board accordingly recommend that payment of the arrears, Rupees 13, be sanctioned.

ORDER THEREON, 15th July 1876, No. 953.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government sanction the payment of the arrears as recommended by the Board of Revenue, but direct that these allowances to minor village servants should henceforth cease entirely. A separate cess is levied, and a fund formed for the payment of the salaries of village officers specified in Madras Act IV. of 1864. Any other servants employed by the villagers for whose pay no provision exists, must be paid by the employers themselves.

Memo for the Board's Proceedings of 27 June 1876. No 1645.

The Board recommend the continuance of the allowances to certain minor village servants in the Godavery District as barbers, washermen &c. The grant of these allowances was ordered in the 27 Feb 1858 No 262 as an understanding apparently with them, that the discontinue after the revision of the village establishments has been concluded - But it now appears that the allowance continued to be was granted even after the revision at the time provision was made for it in the revised scheme.
The account kept did not object to it till recently & the correspondence has come before government only because, the payments have been in arrears for more than 2 years.

The Board considered that they should now be sanctioned; but it is submitted that to continue these petty payments to servants who were not considered necessary when the village establishment were revised does not seem desirable.

They are allowed to maintain with whom servants ~~of~~ the village themselves and make the requisite arrangements & it does not seem necessary that public funds should be expended on these matters.

Further if this indulgence is granted in one place, there is no reason why it should not be extended to others.
