Originally the endowment consisted of 356 gortus of land, and it was granted to Cateri Jangam Naidu in Fasli 1216 by Mr. Travers. In 1854, on a report of lapse, the Government resumed the lands, and sanctioned a money endowment of Rs. 15 a-year, as per G. O., dated 19th August 1854. The Manager of the Institution is one Cateri Sreeramulu who requests that the arrears of five years' due, viz. , from Fasli 1280, may be disbursed to him. The Tahsildar of Gudur reports that the water-pandal consists of a thatched building, and is in good repairs. Two servants, one Brahmin and another Sudra, are employed to distribute water to travellers, &c. The water-pandal is also used as a halting place for travellers proceeding to Kota, &c., villages from Nellore and Gudur. I recommend that the payment of the arrears may be sanctioned.

	Dodla Adivi Reddy.	Rs. A. P. 60 0 0	19th Aug. 1854.	Allowance for the support of a choultry at Padamatipalem on the Dorenal road. The Institution and charity are kept up.	From Fasli 1279 to Fasli 1284.	Rs. A. P. 360 0 0	The last payment was made for Fasli 1278, since which period no claim had been preferred till recently. 2. The original grant consisted of fifteen gortus of land, and was made by Mr. Travers in Fasli 1218 for the support of the choultry at Padamatipalem in the Nellore Taluq on the old road between Nellore and Cuddapah. On the report of a lapse in 1854 the Government resumed the land and granted in its lieu a money allowance of Rs. 60 a-year. The choultry remained in the management of Veera Ragava Reddi, the grandson of the original grantee, and his agents, but the building was neglected and allowed to fall into disrepair. In 1872 the Tahsildar of Nellore reported on the matter, and the Managers agreed to build a new choultry on the new Dorenal road.

and have since completed the building at a cost of 4,000 Rupees. Dodla Adivi Reddi has been appointed Manager of the Institution with the consent of Veera Ragava Reddi. While building the new choultry, a temporary thatched building was used for the convenience of the travellers. Under these circumstances, I recommend that the payment of the arrears for six years from Fasli 1279, amounting to Rupees 360, be sanctioned.

ORDER THEREON, 18th July 1876, No. 967.

Miscellaneous.

WITH these Proceedings the Board of Revenue submit a statement, from the Collector of Nellore, of arrears due to two Russumdars in that district, with their recommendation for the payment of the arrears. The sums due are as follow:—

Rs. 75-0-0 due from Fasli 1280 to 1284 to Cateri Sreeramulu Naidu, at Rs. 15 per annum, for the support of a water-pandal at Chedeinala, in the Gudur Taluq.

Rs. 360-0-0 due from Fasli 1279 to 1284 to Dodla Adivi Reddy, at Rs. 60 per annum, for the support of a choultry at Padamatipalem on the Dorenal road.

2. The Government sanction the payment of the arrears in the first of these cases.

3. As to the second case, it is observed that the Collector's statement, that a money-allowance of Rs. 60 a-year was sanctioned in 1854 for the support of the choultry in question is not borne out by the G.O. quoted, dated 19th August of that year. This order (bearing No. 976) refers, in paragraph 3, to four cases of grants for the support of choultries; and it does not appear that a money-allowance was either recommended or sanctioned in any one of these cases. The Board will, therefore, call upon the Collector to quote the correct date and number of the Government Order in support of his statement adverted to above.
