ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From Mr. J. WINTER, Deputy Surveyor, to the Deputy Superintendent, No. 1 Revenue Survey, dated Ootacamund, 10th July 1876.

I beg most respectfully to bring to your notice that since my joining the department, I have been put to many difficulties owing to the smallness of my present salary.

2. I have to inform you that while with my corps, my pay generally ran to, or upwards of, Rs. 30 per month with my family allowance, consisting of a wife and two children.

3. Since my joining the Survey, Government have thought fit to discontinue me the family allowance, and I am obliged barely to live upon that what I at present receive from the Survey Department, which salary I am unable to live upon, nor do I expect any increase for some time to come.

4. My present employ in the Survey, I find to be too hard to my constitution for me to undergo the work, and must beg of you kindly to permit me to rejoin my corps where I was better off than in the present department.

5. I beg respectfully to tender my resignation at the end of this month, which I trust you will have no objection to accept and forward on to Head Office.
