Read—

A letter from the Government of Fort St. George to the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 2927, dated the 15th December 1877, and its enclosures, reporting that Major A. T. Rolland, Superintendent of Police in Tanjore, who, while on furlough in England, was directed to return to India before the expiration of his furlough, has been allowed by the Secretary of State a free passage from England to India, and suggesting that Major Rolland is therefore "entitled to be reimbursed his actual expenses from Bombay to his station."

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to rule that whenever an absentee on furlough or other leave in Europe, who is directed to return to civil duty in India before the expiration of his leave, is allowed by the Secretary of State a free passage to any port in India, he may, with the sanction of the Government or Local Administration under which he is employed, be reimbursed the personal travelling expenses actually incurred by him in proceeding from that port to the station to which he may be first posted.

2. This ruling may be retrospectively applied to Major Rolland's case.

Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the other Departments (with the intimation that it will be reported to the Secretary of State), to all Local Governments and Administrations, to the Comptroller-General and other Chiefs of Departments administered by the Government of India in this Department, to all Accountants-General, and to Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
