Memo for Orders.

On Offl. Memo from Supt. Revenue Survey, dated 6th June 1878, No 1895/78, notifying the acceptance of the resignation by Major C. D. Baynes of the Staff Corps of his appointment of 1st Assistant Supt. Revenue Survey.

The Supt. Revenue Survey was authorized [illegible] 60.15 April 1864 No 638 [illegible] to accept resignations of his subordinates in future merely reporting the "fact to Govt. by Offl. Memo."

Colonel Scott has followed this course in Major Baynes's case.

Practically no harm is done and the paper might be simply recorded with reference to Major Baynes's recent appointment as Chief Asst

Supt

Right to do so - but is it necessary?

26/6/78

Will letter now to be sent to Supt. Revenue Survey, Bengal, & Bombay & Madras Governments.

Agent / of which Colonel Scott says nothing / but as Staff Corps Officers are not permitted to resign Civil appointments without the sanction of Govt: or unless the Commander-in-Chief is prepared to give them military employment it should perhaps be pointed out to Colonel Scott that the G.O. he quotes is not applicable to Staff Corps
Officers.
