Sir,
I have delayed in replying to yours letter No. 639, being anxious to give you a clear explanation as to how the land given to Mr. Hall was parted with. When first I was applied to in the matter, I was very urgent that the land Commissioner. Mr. Hall had endeavored to get some members of the Government to be interested in his application and old and respected Government servant and that the land in question would be in a
