Famine Relief.

Read the following paper :—

No. 378. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue (Famine) Department, dated Fort St. George, 14th May 1878, No. 954.

With reference to Proceedings of Government in the Revenue (Famine) Department, No. 940, dated the 17th ultimo, I have the honor to point out that Mr. Johnston is not entitled to retain the allowance as Acting Superintendent of Central Jail, Salem, from the date on which he was relieved of the charge of that Institution by the permanent incumbent, and that Mr. Johnston cannot, therefore, draw for his present famine duty in the Salem District the same salary as he drew while employed on similar duty in the Cuddapah District, during which period he retained a lien on his acting appointment at the Salem Jail. All that he is entitled to now is the pay of his permanent appointment as Deputy Collector, 3rd Class, Salem District, viz., Rs. 350; and under the orders of the Government of India contained in their letter recorded in G.O., No. 2,441-A, dated 3rd August 1877, Revenue, no higher emoluments can be passed to him for famine duty except upon the special sanction of the Supreme Government.

2. Mr. Johnston has accordingly been furnished with a pay-slip authorising him to ~~draw~~ Rs. 350 only a-month.

No. 379. Order thereon, 24th May 1878, F.R. No. 1,187.

Miscellaneous.

The objection raised by the Accountant-General seems valid, and as His Grace the Governor in Council sees no good reason to move the Government of India to sanction special allowances to Mr. Johnston, he can only draw such allowances as he may be entitled to as a Deputy Collector. G.O., 17th April 1878, No. 940, will be modified accordingly.

2. As, however, Mr. Johnston may have accepted famine duty on the understanding that he would get the same pay as he got in Cuddapah, His Grace the Governor in Council considers that he should be given the option of returning, should he wish it, to ordinary duty, and the papers will be forwarded to the Revenue Department in order that the option may be afforded him.
