My dear Sir Lyon Playfair

The enclosing of Malabar and Canara (at all events Canara) in the Presidency of Bombay last seems to have given great weight and satisfaction to the Native and Malabar Deputation lately leaving Canara in the Presidency of Madras Act 2 of 1878 — The Secretary of this Society has thought the Proposition of Earth salts

[illegible] would be a punishable offence in that District, but Bill [illegible] will, I think, have to be drawn for the reason stated in Mr Conyers's letter I have not the ruling of the High Court here, but I remember they stated that the case then before them would have been met by Madras Act VI of 1871 — They do not refer to any Section of the Act in support of their view, but the Sections are Section 4 and 14 coupled with the definition of manufacture" and the making an attempt to do certain things an offence — It is clear I think that the Act was not expressly directed against the possession of Salt Earth or Earth Salt, and I doubt whether in many cases the possession would be an offence under the Act, although no doubt in other cases it would. However this may be the present Madras Act VI of 1871 cannot be retained in Malabar and Canara

Proclamation
30th May 1878

My dear Sir Edward

I am happy to forward the 29th inst Libraries on the whole, a satisfactory & successful the progress of education under Act II of 1870 Superintendency the former education - It is to be hoped that both a check can be brought with the act by a better attention and better observance of it

Operation by an Act subsequently Consolidated Act to which this Could be done But the including of the Malabar and Canara in the first Instance was in Anticipation of the Repeal of Act VI of 1871 to those Districts from the passing of Act II of 1878, and both Acts Cannot be applied both Same District without Causing Anomalies and Difficulties similar act in Bombay Presidency to which the latter Act could with propriety not be made Applicable. Provision for the Case of Districts of any are included Partially the Commissioner would be liable to prosecution under Act II of 1878 although I presume the prosecution would be instituted in fact.

I see that it was intended to bring the Licensing System to an End in 1878 or 1879 and it seems probable that there are but few Licenses in force now — If this be so could the Collectors Can arrange with the Licensees the Notification Can be issued without giving any unreasonable trouble to Constabulary

Yours very faithfully
P Sullivan
