No. 234. Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 9th September 1878, No. 2,496.

Read the following letter from E. F. WEBSTER, Esq., Collector of Tanjore, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Court of Wards, dated Vallam, 27th August 1878, No. 3,070:—

With reference to the Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated the 8th August 1878, No. 2,208, the Government Pleader at Madras has applied to me for a remittance of Rupees 1,222* to prefer an appeal to the High Court on behalf of the Vettangudi estate against the decree in Original Suit No. 116 of 1876 on the file of the Negapatam Sub-Court.

2. As there was no balance available in the treasury on account of the estate, except a portion of the advance sanctioned for cultivation purposes, and as the time for presenting the appeal was close at hand, I have sent the Government Pleader the enclosed telegram.

3. The advance of Rupees 1,910-4-0, sanctioned in G.O., No. 817, dated 29th May 1878, has proved insufficient for purposes of cultivation. At the time of my application paddy was sold at Rupee 1-12-0 per kalam, and it is now sold at Rupees 2-4-0. In order to make up the difference required, and for maintenance, &c., charges, the Deputy Collector has applied for a further advance of Rupees 846 made up of the following items:—

Money payment for the estate establishment as well as for the Minor's maintenance and school fees, &c., for four months ...	354	12	0

In these circumstances I have the honor to request that a sum of Rupees 2,068 may be advanced from the public treasury.

Both the items of advance now applied for are very urgently required, and I request therefore that early orders may be passed. The sum applied for by the Government Pleader may be ordered to be paid at Madras.
