I HAVE the honor to inform you that the marginally-noted five villages in the Bodinayakanur Zemindari in Periyakulam Taluk are under the jurisdiction of the Tahsildar of the taluk. The ryots of one of these, Kuchanur, complain that they have to travel a long distance of twenty miles in going to Periyakulam for magisterial and registration purposes, and pray that the village may be transferred to Chinnamanur Division in the said taluk by which a distance of seventeen miles may be saved. The Tahsildar seconds the proposal, and at the same time suggests that the aforesaid five villages be also brought under the jurisdiction of Chinnamanur Deputy Tahsildar on the same score of their proximity to Chinnamanur.
