GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

10th December 1878, No. 1,981.

Read the following paper :—

No. 103. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th November 1878, No. 3,131.

Read the following letter from H. P. GORDON, Esq., Acting Collector of Bellary, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 24th August 1878, No. 294 :—

As requested by Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co. in their letter of the 8th August, I have the honor to refer to the Board for their orders certain correspondence between myself and Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co. as to the claim made by me for the difference between the sum paid by them monthly for a distillery guard, and the sum of Rupees 100 per mensem, which, under their former agreement, they were bound to pay (if required) for the maintenance of a guard.

2. The regular cost of the guard kept at the distillery during the term of the past contract was Rupees 96-4-0 per mensem, but from the month of October 1876, famine allowance, amounting to Rupees 240 as particularized in the margin, was paid to the guard. To cover this extra payment, the demand in question was made by me for the whole term of the contract, but upon its being pointed out by Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co. that the famine allowance, was paid only from 1st October 1876, I withdrew (subject to the Board's orders) my claim to the difference between the amount of actual expenditure and the sum conditioned for the period previous to that date.

	Rs.
For nine months from 1st October 1876 to 30th June 1877 at Rupees 12 per mensem	108
For four months from 1st July to 31st October 1877 at Rupees 18 per mensem	72
For two months from 1st November to 31st December 1877 at Rupees 12 per mensem	24
For six months from 1st January to 30th June 1878 at Rupees 6 per mensem ...	36
Total ...	240

3. In doing so, I was guided by a consideration of the terms of the agreement made by Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co., a copy of the material portion of which is enclosed.

4. In any case, the regular charge of the Police guard plus their famine allowance will exceed the sum of Rupees 100 monthly which Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co. agreed to pay.

5. I have, therefore, further to request that the Board may obtain the sanction of Government to the disbursement to the Police Department of the deficit. The amount of this will vary with the view which the Board may take as to Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co.'s liability.

6. If they consider that Messrs. Sabapathy Moodeliar and Co. can be called upon to pay the difference between Rupees 96-4-0 and Rupees 100 for the whole term of their lease, it will be Rupees 105 ; if they approve my amended demand, it will be Rupees 161-4-0.

ENCLOSURES Nos. 1 to 3.—Copies of Correspondence.

UNDER the terms of the contract famine batta might certainly have been claimed provided the limit of Rupees 100 per mensem was not exceeded, but the lease has now expired, and the Board do not think the late renter should now be called upon to pay the difference between the charges claimed and the sum conditioned; the demand should have been made at the time, the batta being charged monthly as it fell due. The sanction of Government is requested for debiting the full amount of famine batta, Rupees 240, to Abkári Contingencies.
