GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

20th January 1879, No. 142.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 351. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to H. S. THOMAS, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 10th January 1879, No. 80.

With reference to the correspondence noted below, copy of which is herewith forwarded, I have the honor to inquire whether it was the intention of Government by their Order, No. 522, dated 28th February last, to discontinue all gratuitous relief from the 15th March following, and, if so, to enquire, under the explanation offered by the Collector, whether I may admit such expenditure subsequent to that date in the Pulney Division up to and inclusive of the month of April 1878, and in the Madura Division up to and inclusive of the month of July 1878:—

Letter from this office to Collector, No. 5,820, dated 10th October 1878.
Do. to do. from do. No. 2, dated 3rd January 1879.

Enclosure No. 1.

From the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Collector of Madura, dated Fort St. George, 10th October 1878, No. 5,820.

With reference to orders of Government contained in paragraph 2 of their No. 522, dated the 28th February 1878, (Famine) Revenue, I have the honor to enquire from what date or dates gratuitous relief operations were entirely closed in the several divisions of your district.

2. It is observed from the General Deputy Collector's letter embodied in G.O., No. 898, dated 15th April 1878, (Famine) Revenue, that the relief-camps at Madura were closed from the 31st March, but in the sub-division it would appear that gratuitous relief was continued subsequent to the above date; bills for the expenditure having been received in this office up to and for the month of May following.

3. I request an early reply to this reference, as the famine expenditure bills received from your district for the months subsequent to March last are awaiting final disposal for want of this information.

Enclosure No. 2.

From the Acting Collector of Madura, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated 3rd January 1879, No. 2.

In reply to your letter, No. 6,806, dated 11th December 1878, I have the honor to state that G.O., F.R. No. 522, of 28th February 1878, is not peremptory, vide G.O., F.R. No. 1,425, dated 28th June 1878.

2. There were a few orphans maintained by Government in the Madura Relief Camp who had neither friends nor relatives, nor any one to take charge of them, until in July they were transferred to the Famine Committee. The cost of maintaining them appears necessarily to have been charged to Famine Funds.

3. As regards Pulney, I have the honor to inform you that when all famine relief operations in the taluk ceased, and the relief-camps were closed, there remained a number of famine patients who could not without danger to life be removed to their villages at the time. They were discharged as soon as they were in a fit condition to travel. The charge appears also to have been properly debited to Famine Funds.

4. It appears to me, therefore, unne[cessary] to apply for further sanction to charges which have been admitted. Government have been informed of these facts given in paragraphs 2 and 3 in the marginally-noted letters from this office.

Letter to Government, dated 17th July 1878, No. 2,48.
Letter to the Sub-Collector, Madura, dated 12th August 1878, No. 2,751.

No. 362. ORDER THEREON, 20th January 1879, No. 142.

Miscellaneous.

IT is observed that it was not the intention of Government by paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 522, P.H., of 28th February, to stop charges on account of the support of orphans, or of the sick poor necessarily detained from their homes with a view to their treatment and recovery. The order refers to village, not gratuitous, relief. The Accountant-General, therefore, is authorised to admit charges incurred for the above purposes, subject to the usual rules.
