GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

20th January 1879, No. 151.

Read the following paper :—

No. 367. Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 17th December 1878, No. 3,387.

Read the following letter from H. St. A. GOODRICH, Esq., Acting Collector of Vizagapatam, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Court of Wards, dated 4th December 1878, No. 1,810 :—

I HAVE the honor to submit herewith a petition from the Rani of Bobbili; she desires to lay before Government, through the Court of Wards, the representations therein contained.

2. It will be in the remembrance of the Court that on the death of the Diwan Inuganti Sitaramaswamy, I submitted that the management of the estate had been left to the Rani, a young widow of twenty, in consideration of the high character and administrative ability of the said Inuganti Sitaramaswamy.

3. My opinion was laid before the Board of Revenue in a letter printed in their Proceedings of 12th October 1876, No. 2,571. The question was disposed of in Proceedings of the Board, dated 13th February 1877, No. 605.

4. I regret to state that it is extremely doubtful whether on adopting an heir to her late husband the Rani secured any jointure or settlement whatever for herself. This point will probably be left for decision by the Civil Court.

The Minor believes, as does the Rajah of Venkatagiri, that she will retain no part of the property on the attainment of his majority by the heir.

5. During the last few weeks whilst residing at Waltair, the Minor has had continually in attendance on him Inuganti Venkayya Garu, the man most of all detested by his mother. This person has been intriguing with the ryots of one of the taluks, urging them to withhold their consent to the usual agreements. The taluk in question is the Kavite Kana and the ryots hold river-irrigated lands and divide the crop annually with the Zemindar, giving security before cutting it to abide by the wholesale price. This is fixed in February and the value of the customary share at the commutation rate eventually paid. The greatest possible confusion may be caused by this intrigue, and I am going to inquire into this matter before leaving for Jeypore.

6. I respectfully submit that recent events have in a measure justified my expectation expressed in September 1876 that the appointment of an experienced officer to manage the estate was desirable.

7. The conduct of the Minor has been perverse, and he has shown no consideration for the lady to whom he owes so much. To bring him under the law which prolongs the period of minority until the attainment of the age of twenty-one would be probably of service to him. He will succeed in 1880 under present arrangements, and he is certainly not fit for the charge of a great estate.

8. The Rani's offer to hand over the estate is conditional, and I cannot recommend that the conditions be entirely accepted. Residence in the fort and ample allowances will no doubt be granted to the Rani if the Court of Wards assume the management, but the Court cannot, in my opinion, administer the estate "by the petitioner," a young lady living in seclusion.

9. Translations of the letters referred to in paragraphs 6 and 7 of the petition are under preparation and shall be submitted for the information of the Court.

10. I need not repeat the particulars of the recent disputes between the lady and her son to which she refers; Government and the Board of Revenue have received reports from me on the subject.

11. The assumption of the management of the estate and the prolongation of the minority of the heir would be highly beneficial in my opinion if an experienced officer were appointed to administer the estate.

Enclosure No. 1.—Petition.

Read also endorsement of Collector, dated 5th December 1878, forwarding translations of certain letters addressed to him by Rani of Bobbili.

In their Orders, dated 7th August 1873, No. 1,649, and 31st March 1877, No. 921, the Government decided that the Bobbili Zemindari should not be brought under the Court of Wards so long as the Rani's management of the estate continued to be satisfactory; and a reference to the first of the orders quoted shows that the arrangement was regulated in conformity with the wishes of the lady conveyed in a petition announcing her intention of adopting the third son of the Zemindar of Vankarathi. It has continued in force since the death of her husband, the late Zemindar; and so far as the Board are aware, no cause has hitherto arisen rendering a modification necessary or desirable.

2. The Collector now submits a petition from the Rani in which, after bringing to notice that the Muzar, acting under bad advice, is intriguing to thwart her authority, she requests that, having reference to his probable unfitness to manage the estate when, under existing circumstances, he comes of age in 1880, the period of his minority should be extended in accordance with the provisions of Act IX of 1875 to his twenty-first year, the management of affairs continuing to vest in her, or that the estate should be placed under the Court of Wards with the proviso that they should administer its affairs through her agency with the assistance of a manager to be appointed (with her approval) by Government.

3. As the young Zemindar is not under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards within the meaning of Section 3 of Act IX of 1875, the age at which he attains his majority will be eighteen according to the concluding clause of the section quoted; and with reference to the Rani's other suggestion, it would of course be impossible for the Court of Wards to assume the responsibilities attaching to the administration of so important an estate if fettered by the conditions proposed.

4. It now rests with the Government to decide whether, under existing circumstances, it is desirable that the Court should assume the management of the estate during the remaining period of the young Zemindar's minority, which will then be extended to 1883.

5. It will be seen from the Collector's letter, paragraphs 5 to 7, that his conduct is anything but satisfactory, and that the Rani's authority being thwarted by the intrigues fomented by his unscrupulous associates, complications are likely to arise unless steps are taken to put matters on a more satisfactory footing. Having regard to this and to the notorious ill-feeling which unfortunately exists between the young Zemindar and his adoptive mother, the Board recommend the estate being placed under the management of the Court of Wards.

Most Honored Sir

I humbly beg that your honor will be so good as to bring this my Petition into your kind consideration, and submit that due notice of my humble prayer will be taken in passing the favorable orders of Government.

2. I have entered my seventeenth year. I am married. My former wife is living with me. I have long put up with the Rani's outrageous conduct. It has at last become intolerable. The present Dewan who exercises unbounded influence on the Rani, and the clique in power are wasting my property in an unaccountable and irresponsible way. The Rani and the clique about her, being in power and able to spend money, they easily get people to listen to their tales against me.

Collector of Vizagapatam District

The holders of the Bobbili Zamindari in your District are of my family. The last of these Sri Raja Letti Damakristna Rayudappa Ram gam Bahadur Gaur having died childless, his widow Sri Rajah Lakshmi Challyamma, Bahadur Gaur has informed me that she has reported to the authorities the fact of her husband having given her permission to adopt a son, and requested me to give her my third son in adoption. He further informed that she would retain the administration of the whole Zamindari in her own hands till the adopted boy comes of age & can take possession himself; that on her reporting this request to Government, they gave their consent to it; and that she has agreed that the personal and real property unconnected with the Zamindari should go to her adopted son alone after her. Thereupon I agreed to the proposal and at 11 A.M. on the 1st February 1871 corresponding with Wednesday the 11th increasing Moon of the month of Magham of the year Pramodita, gave my third son Sri Ranga Ramam Krishnaiyagar in adoption agreeably with the requirements requirements of the Hindu Law. I therefore communicate this good news for your information.

My husband authorized me to adopt a son and to enjoy the Zeminari and the other property conjointly with him (adopted son) This I reported to the then Collector immediately after the death of my husband. That Gentleman looking into the matter properly on October 12th 1858, wrote to me a letter stating, among other things, that I should manage the Estate properly and adopt a son whom I might choose, and report the same to him. Thereupon I proposed to adopt one of the sons of the Zeminidar of Venkatagiri.
That Zeminidar consented to give me his 3^d son in adoption. But the child to be adopted, being a minor, I am doubtful which view the Govt. will take if the adoption takes place now. I have been administering the Estate properly in accord-ance with the Collector's letter above mentioned.
If the minor be taken as a ward of the Court of Wards, there will be no convenience to myself and to my whole retinue of the Zeminari. After I make the adoption I will continue to manage my Estate well. I have resolved to educate my adopted son in English

Govt for the continuance of the management

Vizagapatam Collector's Office 4th December

From

H. St. A. Goodrich Esquire Collector Vizagapatam.

To C. A. Galton Esquire Secretary to the Court of Wards, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit - herewith a petition from the Rani of Bobbili: she desires to lay before Government through the Court of Wards the representations therein contained.

2. It will be in the remembrance of the Court that on the death of the Dewan Inuganti Sitaramaswami I submitted that the management of the estate had been left to the Rani, a young widow of twenty, in consideration of the high character and administrative ability of the said Inuganti Sitaramaswami.

3. My opinion was laid before the Board of Revenue in a letter printed in their Proceedings of 13th October 1876 to 25th 11. The question was disposed of in Proceedings of the Board dated 13th February 1877 at 5605.

4. I regret to state that it is extremely doubtful whether on adopting an heir to her late husband the Rani secured any jointure or settlement whatever for herself. This point will probably be left for decision by the Civil Court.

The Minor believes as does the the Rajah of Tenkatagiri that she will retain no part of the property on the attainment of his majority by the R. S.

5. During the last few weeks whilst residing at Malabar the the Minor has had continually in attendance on him Jamgunti Venkayya Garna the man most of all detested by his mother. This person has been intriguing with the ryots of one of the taluqs urging them to withhold their consent to the usual agreements. The taluq in question is the Thavite Kana and the ryots hold river-irrigated lands and divide the crop annually with the zemindar giving security before cutting it to abide by the wholesale price. This is fixed in February and the value of the customary share at the commutation rate eventually paid. The greatest possible confusions may be caused by this intrigue and I am going to enquire into this matter before leaving for Jeypore.

6 I respectfully submit that recent.

recent events have in a measure justified my expectation expressed in September 1876 that the appointment of an experienced officer to manage the estate was desirable.

7. The conduct of the Minor has been perverse and he has shown no consideration for the lady to whom he owes so much. To bring him under the law which prolongs the period of minority until the attainment of the age of twenty-one would be probably of service to him. He will succeed in 1880, under present arrangements and he is certainly not fit for the charge of a great estate.

8. The Rani's offer to hand over the estate is conditional and I cannot recommend that the the conditions be entirely accepted. Residence in the Fort and ample allowances will no doubt be granted to the Rani if the Court of Wards assume the management but the Court cannot in my opinion administer the estate 'by the petitioner', a young lady living in seclusion.

9. Translations of the letters referred to in paragraphs 6 & 7 of the petition are under preparation and shall be submitted for the information of the Court.

10. I need not repeat the particulars of the recent disputes between the lady and her son to which she refers. Government and the Board of Revenue have received reports from me in the subject.

the Government decided that the Bobbili Zamindaris should not be brought under the Court of

to be satisfactory, and a reference to the first of the orders quoted intention of adopting the 3^d Law of the Guardian of the Estate.

It has continued in force since the death of her husband the late Guardian and so far as the Board are aware no cause has hitherto arisen rendering a modification necessary or desirable.

2. The collector now submits a petition from the Rani in which after bringing to notice that the minor acting under bad advice is intriguing to thwart her authority, she requests, that having reference to his probable unfitness to manage minority should be extended sions of Act II of 1875 to his 21st year, the management of affairs continuing to rest in her, or that the Estate should be placed under the Court of Wards with the proviso that they should administer its affairs through her agency with the assistance of a manager to be appointed (with her approval) by Government.

3. As the young Guardian is not under the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, within the meaning of Section 3 of Act II of 1875 the age at which he attains his majority will be 18 according to the concluding clause of the Section quoted, and with reference to the Rani's other suggestion it would of course be impossible for the Court of Wards to assume the responsibilities attaching to the administration of so important an Estate if felt by the Commissioners proposed.

4. It now rests with the Government to decide whether under existing circumstances it is desirable that the Court should assume the management of the Estate during the remaining period of the young Gaumindar's minority which will then be extended to 1885.

5. It will be seen from the Collector's letter paras 5 to 7 that his conduct is anything but satisfactory and that the Peon's authority being thwarted by the intrigues fomented by his unscrupulous associates, Com-plaints are likely to arise unless steps are taken to put matters on a more satisfactory footing. Having regard to this and and to the notorious ill-feeling which unfortunately exists between the young Gaumindar and his adopted mother, the Board recommend the Estate being placed under the manage-ment of the Court of Chancery.

There is no doubt of the legality. The adoption of minor a minor enabled the Gov. to place the estate in hand. As if preceding in reference to Lewis's wishes. But she has found a way to enter her adopted son. She is still a minor. She cannot be a direct action. (M)

The Law decided in favor of power. When she made the adoption.
The minor then became legal property. (M)
