From: The Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.

To: The Commissioner of Pilgherries
Coimbatore.

Referring to your letter of 10th of 16: May 1879, I have the honor to state that the Clerk who did the writings for the Pilgherries Committee was Mr. C. J. Taylor of my office (since deceased).

2. It will be in the recollection of the Members of the Committee that I was authorized, as Secretary to employ some one to copy the necessary papers and proceedings, and at the termination of our labours, that a grant of Rs 50. should be recommended as remuneration for the writer. The proceedings of the Committee are lodged in your office, and I have no copy to refer to, but I believe you will find a resolution on the subject daily recorded.

3. Mr. Taylor, whose salary was Rs 50. a month undertook the work on the understanding that it would be paid for. He was employed in connection with the work during the sittings of the Committee, and in finally passing the report through the press. He was not relieved of any of his duties, and he was promised extra pay, under the authority conveyed to me by the Committee, to employ a writer.

4. Mr. Taylor died very shortly after the completion of the work. His relations are aware of the claim and it is on his mother's account that I have reminded you as President of the resolution of the Committee, that Government should be asked to grant Rs. 50. for the service of a writer.
