GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

31st December 1878, No. 2374.

Accounts.

Read the following—

Statement from the Accountant-General, dated 24th December 1878, No. B.C.M.-2.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding Statement of Revenue and Expenditure of the Government of Madras from 1st April 1877 to 31st March 1878, compared with corresponding period of previous years.

No. 322. ORDER THEREON, 31st December 1878, No. 2374.

The statement will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette, and twenty copies separately struck off for the use of the Accountant-General.

2. It is satisfactory to note that, notwithstanding the adverse season of 1877-78, the collections under "Land Revenue" were, as compared with 1876-77, better by £198,309.

3. There was a considerable falling off in the revenue from Salt, Excise and Customs, and the net decrease under all heads of Receipts is £62,840.

4. The charges include the heavy outlay on account of famine during the years 1876-77 and 1877-78 of £1,323,324 and £1,725,774, respectively, exclusive of expenditure not yet reported and advances remaining unadjusted. The net result of the comparison between the two years shows a decrease in the expenditure during 1877-78 of £15,075.
