to the Government of India. At present the telegrams
sent are:

(1) A season telegram
to the Revenue, Agriculture Culture & Commerce
Department

(2) A telegram to Mr Bernard stating numbers & prices.

These are based on
the weekly season
telegrams from the districts which may
also, it is submitted,
be now discontinued.
