To

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department.

Sir

Government Order No 2313 of 16 July last directs the transfer of the Revenue Inspector working in the Old Gudalur Deputy Tahsildars Division to the Nilgiris, I am informed that a peon of Gudalur taluk was attached to the officer transferred but that on the change taking place he reverted to the establishment of the same taluk. As the Revenue Inspectors employed in the Commission do many of the duties of Deputy Tahsildars it is necessary that they should be provided with peons and I have the honor to request that Government will sanction the transfer of the peon with the Revenue Inspector or permit me to entertain a man for the purpose.

2. The salary will be the same (Rs 7000---) as that paid to peons attached to the Dy Tahsildar's Quarters at Gudalur.

To The Collector of Malabar

Sir, Referring to a letter of the Acting Commr. of the Nilgiris to the Secretary to Government, copy of which has been forwarded to me for report, I have the honor to state that we cannot spare any person from our Taluk Establishment: we are always short in persons for work, so many being constantly down with fever. Streams are hard to get in, and so many reminders to pay up have to be sent, especially to Europeans, that the work of those that are well has always been heavy. I had in consequence intended to address you for an increase in the Taluk Establishment. We cannot however afford to lose the services of one person.

2. It is absolutely necessary that the peon should remain in Wynad. The Rev. Establishment there is much too weak. The average size of the Amshoms in Wynad is 73 5/13 square miles against an average of only 12 1/2 square miles per Amshom in the Low Country. The consequence is that the Taluk officials are very hard worked, and the work is not efficiently performed.

2. As it seems that the peon formerly attached to the Revenue Inspector from the Wynad Taluk Establishment cannot be spared, sanction is requested for the addition of one peon on Pay to the Kilgiri Establishment.
