Fort Saint George,
Accountant General's Office,
29th January 1879.

From The ACCOUNTANT GENERAL
to the GOVERNMENT of MADRAS,

To The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department.

Sir,

In reply to your official Memo No 20 dated the 11th January 1879 I have the honor to state that the places of Civil Servants employed on famine duty were in most cases filled up by the appointment of temporary Deputy Collectors on Rs 250 a month. And in such cases the savings will be the difference between the pay of the absentees on deputation and the acting allowances disbursed to the officers who acted for them. In all other cases but these, the allowances of Civil Servants employed on famine duty were wholly charged to the ordinary head of service and there will therefore be no savings in the Budget provision

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedt Servant
for Accountant
Offg Accountt General
