GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

13th January 1879, No. 64.

Read the following papers:—

No. 175. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th December 1878, Miscellaneous No. 12,620.

Read the following letter from P. SUBBAIYER, Deputy Collector in charge of the Head Assistant Collector's Office, Madura, to H. J. STOKES, Esq., Acting Collector of Madura, dated Madura, 17th September 1878, No. 455.

I HAVE the honor to submit the following for your consideration and for submission to Government through the proper channel.

2. I have been appointed a temporary Deputy Collector and put in charge of the Head Assistant Collector's Office under orders from Government. This appointment entitles me to draw, as recently decided by Government in their Order No. 3,057, dated 4th October 1877, a charge allowance of Rs. 100 only a month. I need hardly state how extensive the division is and how responsible and onerous the duties of the Head Assistant Collector of the District are, and it is not therefore unfair that the officer in charge should be remunerated in a manner adequate to the work.

3. In 1874 I claimed allowance for a period of 45 days I was in charge of the same office in addition to my own work as Deputy Collector, but my application was disallowed* and I was referred to G.O., No. 737, dated the 26th July 1874. According to the precedent in the case of Mr. Stree Baliah referred to in G.O., of 4th October 1877, it seems to me that I was entitled to an acting allowance for this period; but I think it now too late to reopen my claim to it as the Government have now explicitly stated that they would not disturb previous orders to the contrary.

4. I understand that Mr. Horsfall, the Assistant Collector, was allowed to draw deputation allowance for the 12 days he was in charge of the Head Assistant Collector's Office just before my appointment in July last, and that a similar allowance was granted to Mr. T. Ram Row, the Treasury Deputy Collector, for a few days he was in charge of the Special Assistant Collector's Office in 1877.

5. In the circumstances of my present appointment I request that a special concession may be shown by giving me either a deputation allowance or by raising the salary of my appointment as a temporary Deputy Collector a grade higher, that is, from Rs. 250 to Rs. 350, in addition to the charge allowance referred to in paragraph 2, if you consider I deserve it.

6. There is also another subject to which I wish to draw your attention. The Head Assistant Collector, in order to cover the office rent, used to draw an extra tentage allowance of Rs. 4 per idem throughout the month, and Mr. Nicholson was paying a monthly rent of Rs. 40 for the Latham's bungalow at Rannad where the office is located. No cheaper accommodation can be found in Rannad for holding office.

7. As a Deputy Collector of the 4th Class I cannot draw extra tentage at more than Rs. 2 (though I was allowed Rs. 3 in my permanent appointment as Salt Deputy) or Rs. 60 per mensem, which after meeting the rent of Rs. 40 that has to be paid for the office accommodation, leaves a balance of Rs. 20 only. This sum is sufficient to meet only a very small portion of my travelling expenses in a country like the Head Assistant Collector's Division which has no good road through the greater part of it and where the wages for carriages, &c., are very high. Besides, I find it hard to travel in this division without a tent, and I have already taken steps to provide myself with one. Under these circumstances I beg to request that sanction may be obtained for enabling me, as a special case, to draw allowance at the usual rate of Rs. 4 per diem.

No. 203.

Submitted to the Board of Revenue for the favorable consideration and orders of Government.

SHEMBAGANUR,
26th September 1878.

(Signed) H. J. STOKES,
Acting Collector.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. Under the ruling of the Government of India embodied in G.O., dated 1st February 1878, No. 235, the Deputy Collector is only entitled to charge allowance. With reference to paragraphs 6 and 7 the Board suggest that the office rent be paid by Government and that the Deputy Collector be allowed the same rate of travelling allowance as he drew when performing the duties of his permanent appointment.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 17th August 1874, Miscellaneous No. 5,559.

Read the following letter from W. McQUHAE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madura, 8th August 1874, No. 251.

I HAVE the honor to submit for orders a letter from the Temporary Deputy Collector applying for an additional allowance under Section 25 (b) of the Acting Allowance Code for the period of 45 days during which he was in charge of the Head Assistant's office in addition to that of the Assistant Collector.

2. The Head Assistant's office is really Judicial, that is to say, there is no Revenue business in it, but only the decision of Magisterial cases and revenue suits. But I fear this is not the kind of office meant by the section quoted. At the same time the Deputy Collector had a substantial increase of responsibility and very great additional work in consequence of the absence of both Head Assistant and Assistant Collector on leave at the same time, and if it were possible to give him any additional allowance, I would gladly see him get it.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From P. SUBBAIYER, Temporary Deputy Collector, Madura, to W. McQUHAE, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated Madura, 4th August 1874, No. 61.

I HAVE the honor to request you will be good enough to obtain, if possible, the sanction of Government for payment to me of the charge allowances under Sections 25-6 of the Acting Allowance Code for the period of 45 days, viz., from 10th June to 25th July last, during which I have been in charge of the Head Assistant Collector's Division in addition to that of the Assistant Collector.

The Collector will be furnished with a copy of G.O., 26th July 1878, No. 787.

REFERRED to the Accountant-General for remarks.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
9th December 1878.

(Signed) L. A. CAMPBELL,
Under Secretary to Government.

No. 176. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to H. S. THOMAS, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 14th December 1878, No. 6,873.

With reference to your endorsement, dated the 9th instant, forwarding for remarks Miscellaneous Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 12,620, of the same date, I have the honor to state that as it is evident from Proceedings of Government, Revenue Department, No. 1,764, dated 19th July 1878, that P. Subbaiyer was appointed Temporary Deputy Collector with the sole object of performing the duties of the Head Assistant Collector of Madura, he is not, so far as this office is at present informed, entitled to any charge allowance in respect of that office.

2. It is right, however, that I should point out that this view is opposed to the instructions of His Grace in Council as contained in the Proceedings of Government, dated 30th August 1878, No. 1,381, Revenue Department, and I take the present opportunity, therefore, of suggesting that Government of India may be moved to issue early orders on those Proceedings which appear to have been sent to them for confirmation, but in respect to which this office has as yet received no further instructions.

3. The batta of a 4th-class Deputy Collector (Rs. 2 per diem) is all that can be passed to P. Subbaiyer; there would however be no objection to the actual rent of Rs. 40 per mensem being paid by Government as a provincial charge, and to the Deputy Collector drawing his own proper batta for the days he is entitled thereto on account of marching on duty.

No. 177. ORDER THEREON, 13th January 1879, No. 64.

Miscellaneous.

CHARGE allowance will be passed as in the case of G.O., dated 1st February 1878, No. 235, the papers being submitted for the confirmation of the Government of India.

2. Batta will be passed for travelling on duty at 4th-class Deputy Collector rates, and the charge for office rent will be defrayed by Government.
