J. H. Storey Esq.

By Collector, Rietna.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 852 dated 27 April last, I have the honor to inform you that from enquiry I find that the petitioners admits the petition referred to.

2. I further beg to state that there were three families of the warden serving in the temples at Chebole named Amba-varn, Yoganandam and Ravarn-enjoying certain lands in the Village. Petitioners belongs to the Amba family, holding a half share in it. the other half share being enjoyed by another widow Amba Kamamma, daughter of Ravuru Subbaya belonging to the branch of Ravuruvu.

3. Amba Kamamma died some 14 months ago as a widow leaving no issue of any kind. Petitioner is the only surviving heir of the Amba family and claims deceased's share of Duam.

4. Ravuru Subbaya above mentioned disputes the petitioner's claim saying that she being a widow is not entitled to do the Temple service or to hold any share in the Duams - and that on condition of her being paid annually Rs. 10, and service for her doing the Temple being performed, she made over her share of the Duam to the members of the Yoganandam family.

5. I, however, beg to state that the petitioner seems to be the only surviving heir heir to the deceased Kamamma of the Amba family to which the latter belonged.

6. I therefore leave the grant of certificate to your consideration.

7. The Tahildar's report dated 7 September last is herewith sent with enclosures.
