of August last.

2. The Batta (which amounts to Rs 24-12-0) is claimed by the Hospital Assistant for having been at Thruppan in Medical charge of the Relief Camp there. This arrangement was necessitated owing to the Camp Hospital Assistant having fallen ill and became incapacitated for the performance of his duty; and for some little time the only Medical officer who was available for duty in his stead was the Hospital Assistant attached to the Sub-collector's office. Coorpur is a black feverish place, much disliked by Natives as a place of residence, and I beg to recommend that His Grace the Governor be pleased to sanction the payment of batta for the time the Hospital Assistant remained there on duty.
