[My letter, No. 105, dated 23rd ultimo.]

I HAVE the honor to report that I have completed my examination of the records of my office. I regret to observe that not even a single دفتر has been arranged. Every thing is in a state of utter confusion. If a record of last year or a year before is wanted much difficulty is experienced in finding a clue to its whereabouts. The Despatch and Revenue Registers are not regularly kept. The very few that have been kept are not arranged in one place. Magisterial and Revenue papers are mixed up. In a دفتر labelled as containing Magisterial papers, Revenue papers are also found. The ordinary establishment of my office is fully occupied with the current work of the office; besides, the present amabandi entails great labor, and the opening of the village relief and the camp also throw on them additional labor. Under these circumstances, I do not think it fair to expect them to rectify the neglect of past years. I would therefore beg to suggest in the interests of the public service that sanction may be obtained for the entertainment of an extra clerk for four months for the arrangement of the records. I beg to mention here as a precedent that I am informed that two clerks on Rupees 15 per mensem with the Chumbam allowance were entertained in 1876 for the arrangement of the Chumbam Head Assistant Collector's Office records which were reported to be in a similar condition.

7. The records of the Tandil Taluk are reported to be kept in good order up to fact 1286. In the Tiruvel Taluk, the Taluk accounts are reported to have been arranged up to fact 1285, the village accounts, wholly up to fact 1284, and partly up to 1285, and the rest of the correspondence and Magisterial departments up to 1876. The Deputy Collector appears to have called the attention of the Talukdar to the unsatisfactory state of the records in the Tiruvel Taluk.

ESTIMATE of Work to be done by the Clerk to be entertained for the arrangement of Records in the Nandial Deputy Collector's Office.

There are altogether 147 duffers and 150 file books.

The duffers are to a great extent mixed up together. There are no registers or index books. There is nothing to show which records are to be permanently preserved and which are to be served for a fixed term, and which are to be destroyed. The duffers and file books will have to be arranged in accordance with the notice published at pages 403, 404, and 405 of the District Gazette for 1870, and registers will have to be written up accordingly. At the rate of arranging two duffers each day and writing registers it will occupy the time of one clerk for about three months at least. In fact, nothing has been done towards the arrangement of records since 1866.
