shall decide what tents are worth sending down what are not. In determining whether the cost of carriage of the tents to the account.

His Grace the Governor in Council has directed that the Collectors use districts in which tents remain to the Camp Equipage Depot and are worth sending down or not, and to Madras must be taken into account.

2. Collectors are at liberty to sell or not to send down to Madras to officers who purchase them. If they cannot be so disposed of they may be sold by auction what they will fetch. The total sum realised, up to date, by the sale of tents should be reported by the Collectors of all districts where such sales have taken place in the future, fortnightly, to the 1st and 15th of each month till all the tents in their hands are disposed of.

Answer to Headline. It seems of course most desir^{able} to purchase through the total sale by the sale of tracts wh^{ch} he reported by the Coll^y of all districts where such lands are found in the hands of the holders as a rule. But the fact is that all the lands are now in the hands of the Government and are not available for sale.
