C. No 1859 & 1541

The Govt Order is not applicable. It does not follow because by Law a Change is prohibited in a certain manner, that that which purports to be a Govt Order is applicable if this Govt Order has been changed before it was sent to the Auditor General

With reference to the Honble the Auditor Genls remark of the 2nd inst. on the above case, I beg to state that the Govt Order of March 22nd 1877 No. 179
(& 18th April 1877 No. 128)
is applicable to our Railways or not.

The result is that it is applicable. The Honble

Members remarks is evidently based on para 2 of the Resolution, but from it, it will be seen that additional revenues (since) surrendered only to those provinces to which additional services had been transferred. Police has been all along a Provincial Service in this Presidency & is not newly created. The argument that no revenue has been surrendered does not therefore hold good in this case. If is and further the instruction that "Save as to the charges for the general & the Staff Corps which have been entered if it had remained before 1871/72" - The reply to this matter & the Staff Dept. of Govt services with the Govt. of India is an unsatisfactory one. & the Mil. Dept. of Govt. promised that the Govt. of India is always entitled to Rent.

Moreover would it have been charged to Police & transferred if it had not been charged to Police.

Govt. of India is a Govt. for profit.

The Govt. in 1871/72 refused certain items of charge. & the Govt. of India acquiescing in the wrongful & unjust demand & maintaining the charges for which the provinces had been credited, the Govt. of India has thereby laid themselves open to the charge of having made a profit out of the provinces.

Even that the Civil Dept. has sanctioned grants for the Staff Office without extra work is now thrown on the Police. But under para 5 of the Govt of India Resolution No. 5th dated 18th Oct 1878 no. 1785 dated "the charge for Police Guards, whether for Provincial or Imperial establishments, is now indisputably a Provincial charge". It seems the Police Budget will have to bear the charge, if the employment of extra Guards is indispensably necessary. If however these Guards can be provided from the reserve force no extra charge need be incurred at all.
