No. 154. READ THE FOLLOWING PAPER:—

From C. BERNARD, Esq., C.S.I., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home, Revenue, and Agricultural Department (Public), to the Chief Commissioner of Assam, dated Simla, 19th April 1880, No. 604.

In continuation of the letter from this Department, No. 291, dated 18th February last, regarding the arrangements for the census of India in 1881, I am desired to say that the salary of Mr. Driberg, when employed as Deputy Superintendent of the Census in Assam, will be a Provincial charge.

2. The rule to be observed in all such appointments, connected with the census, is that the usual salary of the census officer will continue to be paid from Provincial revenues in all cases where it was so paid before. The Imperial revenues will only bear the extra cost involved, either in providing a deputation or other allowance to the officer selected, or in making an officiating allowance to the officer filling the temporary vacancy left at the bottom of the departmental list by the employment of the Deputy Superintendent on his special duty.

3. It is observed that, in the present case, you do not propose any acting appointment in the room of Mr. Driberg.
