Sir,

With reference to para 2 of G. O. N^o 405 dated 20th ultimo, I have the honor to enquire whether it is intended that the Sinnerelly China
- bark should be shipped from Madras involving a long and expensive carriage by rail, whereas I imagine that there would be no difficulty in shipping it from Tuticorin, through the Port Officer there, for London direct.

I.

The quantity of bark is not not likely to be large, but I fear the cost of Carriage to Bonbray by rail would prove very heavy. Early orders are requested.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your Most Obedt. Servant.

Respectfully
for Jno. J. of Bristol.

Over

It was intended that the bark should be shipped from Madras, but as Major Campbell Walker appears to think it will be cheaper to ship from Tuticorin, he is requested to ascertain & report the comparative cost for the conveyance of the bark to Tuticorin, and to Madras, respectively, and also the prevailing freight from those two ports to England.
